Personalized Paper Dice

Color and decorate these dice cutouts. In the squares on the blank die, draw or write anything you want (faces, friends' names, or shapes are some ideas). Glue the dice to a piece of thin cardboard (such as an empty cereal box). Cut out the shapes along the solid lines.

Making the dice:

STEP 1:

Make creases (folds) along all the dotted lines. Flip the shape over so the decorated side is facing away from you.

STEP 2:

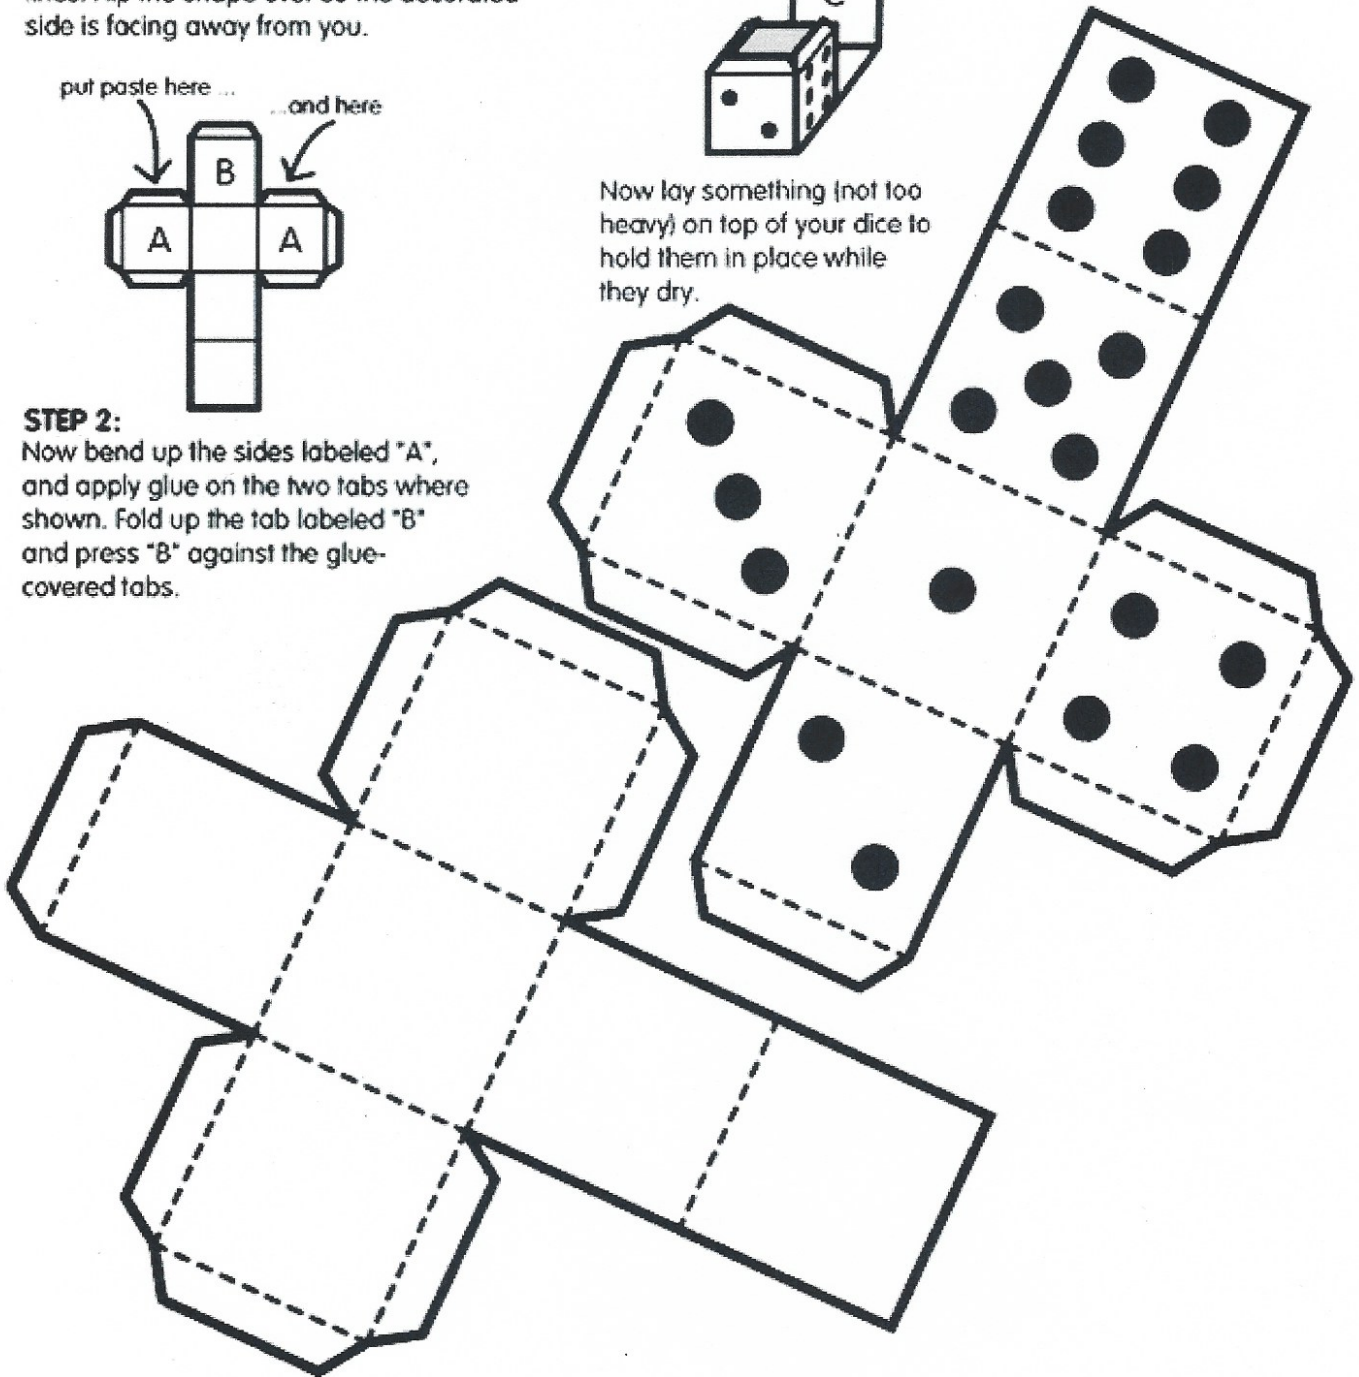

Now bend up the sides labeled "A", and apply glue on the two tabs where shown. Fold up the tab labeled "B" and press "B" against the glue-covered tabs.

STEP 3:

Put some glue on all remaining tabs. Fold tab "C" over the top of the die, and press against the glue-covered tabs.

Now lay something (not too heavy) on top of your dice to hold them in place while they dry.

ROARING LAUGHTER RUN-ONS

FIRE DRILL

Through the meeting or campfire, different people run through with some container (cups, buckets, cans, etc). Eventually the MC stops one of them and asks what's going on to which the reply is "your tent (car, house whatever) is on fire".

Now when we do it we add a great deal to it depending on the location setting etc. The water carriers ham it up by making it look like a real effort or something very serious.

The MC makes some comment to the audience each time one runs through including things like requesting a cup of coffee the next time someone runs through.

Sometimes we have people "offstage" cheering the runner through.

And sometimes we change the "punch line".

Like MC: where's the fire?, runner: there's no fire, so & so is thirsty, at which time someone walks across with a cup and wiping their mouth saying ahhhhhhh.

I think you can get the idea from there.

GOING TO COURT

This one is a run on that requires the camp fire moderator and good timing. One of the nice things about this one is that you can use as little as two appearances or if necessary, you can expand upon it to other situations involving the wordplay about "case" and court. Another line would be at the beginning where the litigant goes to someone for advice, but they say that they don't have a case, prompting them to go buy a briefcase.

Cast: Campfire Chief, litigant, briefcase

Setting: Campfire

Each time the litigant comes in, the campfire chief is about to announce or close a skit. Requires perfect timing or a chief who is able to blend in the litigant's entries perfectly, or both.

Chief: Hello? I'm trying to introduce the next item? What are you doing here?

Litigant: (coming in with briefcase) Uh, excuse me, but I need to tell you something. My inspection results today were terrible, so I'm going to (lift up briefcase) bring my case to court.

Next appearance, the litigant is crawling on the ground with a flashlight, without the briefcase:

Chief: Oh, it's you again. What are you doing down on the ground?

Litigant: I lost my case! I'm looking for it!

Next appearance, the litigant is up on a table, a high chair, a tall tree stump, in a tree, whatever, carrying his briefcase. He makes noise to get attention, and the chief shines a light on him.

Chief: What are you doing now?

Litigator: I'm bringing my case to a higher court!

Last appearance is a little dangerous. Be careful to have plenty of open space where people won't get hurt, and that the chief is ready for this.

Suddenly the briefcase is flying through the air and the Chief catches it -- if only to protect the audience :) -- and exclaims:

Chief: (Flustered) What's this all about?

Litigator: My case got thrown out of court!
